

May 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters, The woman on the left is the most important woman in the ministry in Burkina Faso—Mrs. Assita Coulibaly, the wife of Dr. Moussa Coulibaly, the Executive Director. She is a very accomplished and hard-working woman. She is in charge of the women's ministry, the micro-finance ministry, and the children's Sunday School. Wherever she goes, she is the most beautiful woman around and her husband appreciates her so much!

Next to Mrs. Coulibaly is Sali Traore, who is the mother of three of our children. Her son came through all our ministries and is now a self-supporting, godly man. Her two girls are still in our schools. Sali has been involved in all the women's ministries and is supporting her family through the micro-finance loans. She is a very enthusiastic, committed Christian.

This is the women's conference of Coulibaly's home church. Everyone has the same fabric but sewed to meet her own style. Yes, some of the children—even boys—come along.

The women's choir always dances to the Lord.

The home church in the city of Bobo-Dioulasso is growing, but it is very tricky to get the legal deed to the property for a church. The congregation knows it is unwise to invest too much in this building, so an addition and a prayer room has been added, composed of a mixture of mud and cement.

Praises for this month:

- The growth of the church in the photos above.
- Eleven people are being baptized at the recently built third secondary school at another village.

Prayer requests:

- Please pray for rain. There was insufficient rain and insects eating the crops last year, so food is hard to purchase.
- Pray for the children and youth as they take their school exams the month of June (6th, 10th, and 13th grades).
- $5,000 is needed to purchase textbooks for 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th graders in the secondary school in Bobo-Dioulasso.
